

COVID 19 VACCINE SUPPORT

Earlier this week, the AD Council and COVID Collaborative announced that Pope Francis and six Cardinals and Archbishops from North, Central, and South America worked in collaboration to produce a public service announcement promoting COVID-19 vaccines.

The PSA, which is part of the AD Council and COVID Collaborative's groundbreaking COVID-19 Vaccine Education Initiative, represents the first-ever AD Council campaign designed for and distributed to a global audience. Messaging in the video is delivered in English, Spanish, and Portuguese to reach communities worldwide, reminding viewers that COVID-19 vaccines are safe, effective, and save lives.
